Health Care Plan For Aged Proposed By 6 GOP Senators

Provides Hospital, Nursing And New Insurance Program

BY JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Republican senators offered legislation today to provide a public-private health care plan for the aged that they described as the most comprehensive yet presented to Congress.

One part would provide 45 days of hospital care, up to 180 days of skilled nursing home care, or more than 200 days of home health care following treatment in a hospital for all persons 65 or over.

This would be financed by an increase of $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent in the Social Security pay roll tax

Kennedy Tries To Ease Crisis Over Malaysia

Attorney General Acts for Johnson As Trouble-Shooter

BY JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy arrived in Tokyo today for talks with President Sukarno of Indonesia in an effort to cool Indonesia's hostility toward the new Federation of Malaysia.

The late president's brother arrived by Air Force jet with his wife, Ethel. It is his first assignment by President Johnson as a diplomatic trouble-shooter.

Kennedy said he is counting on a "bond of friendship between the United States and Indonesia" to help ease the dispute. He meets with Sukarno Friday.

Asian Efforts Needed

The 38-year-old attorney general added, however, that the Malaysian crisis is "best decided, resolved, determined by Asian countries, not by ourselves."

Kennedy met Sukarno in 1962 on a Far Eastern tour for his brother. Although Sukarno has been openly critical of the United States, he is said to respect Kennedy's honesty and ability.

Kennedy's personal efforts in the Malaysian dispute will take him around the world to meet with all the principals. Monday, he flies to Manila to confer with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines. He is also expected to talk with Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman in Kuala Lumpur and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home in London.

Under British sponsorship, the British territories of Malaya, Singapore, Sabah (British North Borneo) and Sarawak formed the Federation of Malaysia last September. From the start, it was opposed by the Philippines, which claims Sabah, and Indonesia, which occupies the rest of Borneo.

Sukarno, by far the more militant opponent, vowed to crush Malaysia, calling it an instrument of British neo-imperialism. Philippine opposition to Malaysia has been milder.

Michael Rockefeller Estate Set at $660,000

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — Michael Rockefeller, who disappeared while studying primitive culture in New Guinea two years ago, left an estate worth $660,000.

This was stated in an affidavit by his father, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in a Surrogate's Court action begun this week to have young Rockefeller legally declared dead.

Michael Rockefeller, 23, disappeared off the jungles of New Guinea Nov. 19, 1961, when he tried to swim two miles to shore from a disabled native boat. He was on an expedition to collect primitive art and culture in an area described as one of the wildest in the world.

Johnson Asks Ships, Missiles Spending Cut

Wants Them Slashed By Billion; Added Money for Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is asking Congress to cut spending on missiles and ships by more than a billion dollars and to increase spending on planes by $300 million.

This was revealed Wednesday when the Defense Department sent Congress its authorization request for the 1965 fiscal year.

The request included $10.6 billion for procurement of missiles, ships and planes. Last year, Congress appropriated $11.4 billion for procurement.

Decision At Hearings

Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee that must consider the request, said "I am not disturbed at all" by the requested cut in procurement spending.

"We will see what the justification is when the hearings begin," he continued.

Vinson said the committee would begin its hearings on Jan. 27. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is scheduled as the first witness.

The authorization bill actually totaled $17.2 billion — the largest authorization ever sent to Congress by the Defense Department.

The House Ways and Means Committee is to resume hearings on the administration bill Monday. Wednesday, President Johnson reaffirmed his support for the measure and predicted it "is going to be the law of the land."

"We have just begun to fight," the President told leaders of organizations of senior citizens at a White House meeting. He emphasized that under the plan the insured would be able to choose his own physician and hospital.

Javits said he thinks the bill, offered by the Republican senators, has the best chance of winning broad bipartisan support. He believes it preceded the scheduled date for President Johnson's budget message by almost a week.

Joining him in offering the budget message by almost a week were Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Kenneth B. Keating of New York, Thomas H. Kuchel of California and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

Nuclear Blast Set Off Underground

WASHINGTON (AP) — An underground nuclear test explosion, the first announced for 1964, was set off today at the Atomic Energy Commission's Nevada test site.

Twenty-two weapon-related tests had been announced during 1963 along with three other blasts testing peaceful uses of atomic explosives.

The AEC had announced plans for the blast in advance, saying it would set off a slight earth tremor outside the test site, which is 65 miles northwest of Las Vegas, Nev.

The blast was described as having low intermediate yield.

Force of a low intermediate yield explosion was described by the AEC as between 20 and 200 kilotons. A kiloton is equivalent to 1,000 tons of TNT.

Teamsters Agree On New Contract

Hoffa Elated Over Terms; Membership Still to Vote

BY PAUL A. DRISCOLL

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and the nation's truckers reached an unprecedented master labor contract covering more than 400,000 workers.

Negotiations became snarled Wednesday night in the crash of a single-engine plane which hit a utility pole before plunging into a farm field.

The victims were the pilot, Raymond Moloney, 41, of Lake Forest, Ill., and Arthur Marcy, 37, of Niles, Ill. Moloney was president of the Marlin Toy Co. in Horicon in southeastern Wisconsin. Marcy was the operator of a restaurant and lounge in Niles.

Dodge County authorities said the two-place plane hit a utility pole, tearing off a wing before it fell in the field about two miles northeast of Horicon.

The plane crashed about five miles from the Dodge County Airport at Juncal, where an official of the toy company had agreed to negotiate a new treaty, only to discuss all issues between the two countries once they reached the agreement.

Actions Show

Senate Has 2 Sets of Rules

Question: Is Senate Interested in Full Baker Investigation

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Senate, called the world's most exclusive club, is still very choosy, as the Bobby Baker case and other events show.

It has two sets of rules on conduct: One for other people; a different one for members of the Senate.

For the past 14 years or so, but particularly this year, liberal senators have called on the House and Senate to do unto themselves what they do to others.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, New York Republican, put it this way:

"Congress is constantly laying down regulations for the conduct of those in the executive branch, telling them what they should and shouldn't do."

Double Standard

"It is not right for us to exempt the legislative branch from the rules and regulations we have imposed on the executive branch."

He called it a double-standard and said "it has undermined confidence in our good faith."

This is what he was talking about:

Congress has taken various steps to prevent conflict of interest among employees of the executive branch of government. Conflict of interest can be described as mixing a government job with personal gain.

Law Passed

Congress has not only passed a law against conflict of interest among executive branch employees but subsequently tightened and broadened it.

Congressional committees require men appointed by the President to his Cabinet to get rid of stock they hold in companies dealing with the government.

None of this applies to members of Congress or employees of Congress.

Various liberal senators have proposed legislation — which Congress has consistently ignored — for Congress to establish a code of ethics for itself and its employees on conflict of interest.

There were more such demands, also ignored, when the Robert G. Baker case broke, although not through disclosure in Congress.

Resigned Job

Baker, who had been secretary of the Democratic majority in the Senate for years, quit his job Oct. 7, when, as it became clear, he had wide-ranging financial interests and deals while working for the Senate.

The Senate finally authorized its Rules Committee to investigate to see whether Baker's outside activities had conflicted with his official duties.

It went further:

It authorized the investigation into the financial or business interests or activities of any officer or employee of the Senate, if the Baker investigation made that necessary.

The Senate stopped there. It didn't authorize the committee to investigate any senator who might have been involved with Baker.

Majority Leader

Yet, the Senate's Democratic majority leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana, revealed Senate employees who owe their jobs to the Democrats are being required to list their assets and sources of income.

A number of liberal senators had previously demanded that members of the Senate itself be required to list publicly their assets and income. This was neatly ignored.

Nevertheless, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, North Carolina Democrat and chairman of the Rules Committee's investigation of Baker, said two months ago that any leads uncovered would be followed up regardless of who was involved. He said he had no indication any senator was involved.

Sen. Smathers

This week a witness said Sen. George Smathers, Florida Democrat, was in with Baker in a land deal in Florida.

Later Smathers said in a statement:

He had sold Baker and another man one-eighth interest each in his share of the land venture because they were young men raising families.

Would Smathers now be called to testify before Jordan's committee? Jordan said: "We don't need him — we're not investigating senators."

And he added this: If the committee needs any additional information from Smathers, "we will get it but we will not bring him in."

This raises a question: Is the Senate interested in a thorough investigation of the Baker case?

Ghana Running Into a Host of Difficulties

Repeated Attempts
To Kill Nkrumah
Builds Up Crises

BY KENNETH L. WHITING
ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Along the road to Marxism the country led by Kwame Nkrumah is running into a host of troubles.

Repeated attempts to kill "The Redeemer" help build up an atmosphere of crisis. So do the lists of political prisoners. The nation's balance sheet is in the red, too.

Thousands of extra police have been on emergency duty in the capital since an assassin tried to kill Nkrumah with a bomb in August 1962. The government reported another attempt on Nkrumah two weeks ago.

African Lenin
"Kwame Nkrumah is to Africa today what Lenin meant to the Soviet Union in 1917," Defense Minister Kofi Baako has told reporters.

The dynamic son of a village goldsmith wields virtually dictatorial powers over seven million countrymen. The ruling Convention People's party promotes militant socialism. Much domestic conflict seems to have resulted from opposition to it by intellectuals, businessmen and conservative tribal elements.

The economy, sailing smoothly just six months ago, has sprung a leak.

Prices rose 20 per cent in 18 months. Wage ceilings have allowed no pay increases for two years.

The $700-million nestegg Ghana inherited from England on gaining independence in 1957 is down to $140 million.

Industrial Push

Like most developing countries, Ghana zealously pushed industrialization financed chiefly with short-term loans. About $78 million is committed to industrial and developmental projects. This sum mounts steadily. It costs $56 million in hard currency each year to service the debt.

A capital investment act enacted last year improved the investment climate during the summer. Late in 1963, however, a new tax law wiped out many of these gains.

For several years the government counted on a balanced budget but it came up with a $125-million deficit last year. This year the $403-million budget looks for a $70-million deficit right from the start, despite new revenue from higher taxes.

New Vice President Named by 4-H Club

Donald Friemuth was elected Star 4-H Club at the group's January meeting. He succeeds Tom Peters.

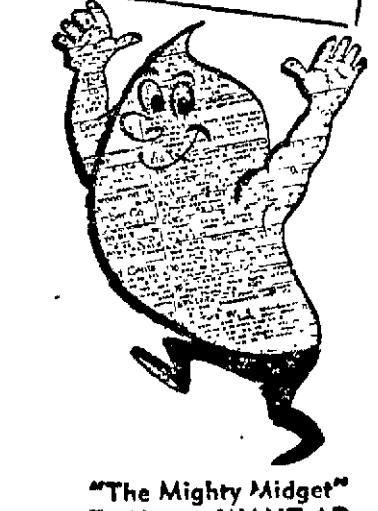

A skating party at the Nichols Pond was scheduled. The club sent a fruit basket to a hospitalized club member.

Jingo Recalls Humble Beginnings of TV Stars

Rumored Merger Would be Fitting Climax to Two 'Rags to Riches' Tales

BY JINGO
The rumored merger of two TV giants, Danny Thomas' production company and Lucille Ball's Desilu Studios, would create something of an appropriate climax to two rags to riches tales.

Danny, son of Lebanese immigrants, as a boy helped support his family of eight brothers and one sister by selling newspapers in the street and candy in a burlesque theater.

Lucy left home at 15 and got a job in New York's garment district. Her breakfast budget in those days was 10 cents, which bought one cup of coffee and two doughnuts.

Danny stayed in the burlesque — night club segment of the theater and had plenty of very lean years before that now-legendary day he prayed to St. Jude offering charity in return for success.

Lucy became a dancer and then a featured player and star on the musical comedy stage.

Both hit it big in the movies, the ratings—and then again it. Danny continues his club and could mean not a thing, charitable works and a few CBS, even with all of its win-years ago Lucy proved she had hers, is said to be spending a not lost any of her live theater good deal of energy on pilot savvy to knocking 'em dead on films.

Broadway in "Wildcat."

Danny, now, is a major part in T & L Productions, the world's most successful TV comedy factory, which produces the Andy Griffith, Dick Van Dyke, Joey Bishop and Bill Dana TV series, as well as his own "Danny Thomas Show."

In addition to being's TV's top comedienne, Lucy is president of a complex of three large studios now converted almost exclusively to TV production.

No Worries

Neither of them has to worry about rags—with the exception of Danny's St. Jude charities of course—and if the merger goes through, neither will even have to worry about riches!

Danny also figures in another big TV story. He's retiring from the CBS TV series whirl, ending a most successful run in his family-type dramatics. However, he's not leaving TV entirely. It is said he has signed for several color specials for NBC.

Casualty Losses Not Deductible After 1963

BY SYLVIA PORTER
(In Collaboration with the Research Institute of America)

1963 may turn out to be the last year in which you can deduct such minor casualty losses as damages from scraped fenders, broken headlights, etc. This is because one of the changes in the big tax bill on which the Treasury is now working would knock out a deduction for the first $100 of each separate casualty loss, starting in 1964.

For instance, if you dented a fender in 1963 and paid $125 to repair it, then dented another and paid another $125, you can deduct the entire $250 on your 1963 income tax return. If the proposed change becomes law and you do this in 1964, you'll be able to deduct only $25 for each casualty, or a total of $50 on your 1964 return. Check back on any minor casualties you may have suffered in 1963 and deduct them while you still can.

If you're a homeowner and you suspect that termites may be damaging your house, find out about this as quickly as you can. Here's why. Up through 1963, a homeowner who was able to prove that the termite damage took place over a relatively short period of time could deduct the damage as a casualty loss without any trouble from the Treasury.

Casualty Loss

But last year the Treasury announced that it won't allow any casualty loss deductions after 1963 for termite damage, no matter how suddenly the damage occurs. Although existing court decisions still will support a deduction for "sudden" termite damage if you prove that the damage happened in 1964, you'll face a fight with the Treasury when you try to deduct this on your 1964 return—which you will file in 1965. If you can prove that the "sudden" damage happened in 1963, though, you still can deduct it without a fight on the 1963 return you're filing this spring.

On deductions for automobile casualty losses, a 1963 court case underlined an important fact for car owners. Damage caused to your car's mechanical apparatus by an internal breakdown is not a deductible casualty loss. To qualify as a casualty, the damage must be caused by the sudden invasion of an external or hostile agency—such as running into another car or throwing up a stone into a headlight, etc. Thus the court held a motorist had no basis for deducting as a casualty loss the damage to his automobile caused by the breakage of two connecting rods while he was driving over a well-paved road. But if the rods had been broken because the motorist backed into a tree by accident, the same damage might have been a deductible casualty.

Another casualty loss headache lies in the deadly Dutch elm disease which has been ravaging beautiful old trees in many sections of the country and causing a sharp drop in the value properties affected.

Not Deductible

The Treasury insists that the disease doesn't create a deductible casualty because the damage isn't sudden enough, and before 1963 a Circuit Court decision upheld this Treasury view. But last year, one courageous taxpayer decided to fight the Treasury by submitting the matter to a jury instead of a judge. The jury rejected the Treasury argument that the Dutch elm disease results in only progressive deterioration and doesn't kill a tree fast enough and it gave the taxpayer a casualty loss deduction.

This, therefore, puts the question of whether or not to claim such a loss squarely up to you. If you do deduct the loss and an examining agent checks your return, he will disallow the loss and you will then have to

UW Journalism Chief Takes Leave to Serve At West Berlin Center

MADISON (AP) — Ralph O. Nafziger, director of the University of Wisconsin School of Journalism, will leave for Germany at the end of the month to serve as director of studies at a new public information training center in West Berlin.

On a five-month leave from Wisconsin, Nafziger also will deliver two special lectures at the Free University of Berlin's Institute of Journalism. He plans to return to Madison in June.

His assignment at the training center will include drawing up a curriculum, teaching and serving as a consultant for a special course devised by the West Berlin Association for Promotion of Journalism in Developing Countries.

During Nafziger's absence, L. L. Hawke of the Journalism faculty will serve as acting department chairman.

fight the disallowance or back down.

Here's an important point on timing your deductions for casualty losses as you prepare your 1963 tax return. Any casualty losses occurring up to April 15, 1964, as a result of storms, fires, floods, etc., in areas officially labeled disaster areas by the President may be deducted on your 1963 tax return—even though your loss occurs in 1964. This gives you an immediate tax saving, and you need not wait until 1965 to take your deduction on your 1964 tax return.

There were official disaster areas last year in over one-fourth of the states.

If in 1964 you are in a disaster area and are affected, take advantage of this advice on timing your casualty loss deduction so you can get your tax saving as soon as possible.

Not Too Often Do Movie fans get a chance to see the author of a screen play, but here Peter Stone and the two stars, Audrey Hepburn and Cary Grant indulge in a little byplay during the filming of "Charade" in Paris. The amusing, romantic suspense-comedy, which critics are calling Grant's best movie, currently is playing at the Viking Theater in Appleton and the Rauli in Oshkosh. The movie marks Grant's 61st starring role.

Sweet Citrus Treats Boost Winter 'Sunshine' Needs

By Lillian Mackesy

Post-Crescent Food Editor

Citrus fruits long have been established as the sunshine substitute during wintry days . . . even when the sun begins to ride higher in the skies as the days get a little longer and a bit brighter as January stretches toward February and March. There's a long dreary time to Spring and oranges rich in Vitamin C and long on delicious flavor can make a beautiful substitute . . . not to mention other nutritious minerals that abound in the fruit. A peeled orange eaten out of hand is a delight . . . but there are many wonderful ways to use the juice and fruit in recipes that range from delicious pick-up beverages to desserts. Sliced oranges make excellent garnishes for meats and go exceedingly well with sliced lemons and grapefruit for a medley of fruity and aromatic flavors. They are fine mixers in salads when teamed with sliced bananas or other fruits, fresh or canned.

So to bring a "little sunshine" into midwinter meals and snacks, we suggest the smooth Orange Velvet that no youngster will ever turn down once tasted. This drink makes an excellent on-the-run snack in a pinch and a raw egg might be beaten into the mixture to give it added nourishment.

The gingerbread recipe is reminiscent of grandmother's day, except the modern one is fashioned from mix. The spiciness of the ginger and sweet freshness of orange juice make a flavorful pair. Add this to a luscious sauce and there's a bonus.

Winter Citrus Pudding is a variation on the familiar Apple Brown Betty, combining tart orange slices with mellow apple slices for a remarkable result. The crunchy texture comes from the topping of flour, sugar, baking powder and egg . . . with just a hint of orange rind for flavor.

The last recipe is one of best . . . be sure to try it either for breakfast or perhaps for Sunday brunch or Sunday night supper. It's mouth-watering just to think about pork patties done to a golden turn, stacked with thick orange slices on top of crisp waffles, then served with syrup from the pan. It's very good!

Here are two winter treats featuring fresh, cool oranges and crisp apples, both now at their abundant, economical peak of goodness. They are Gingerbread with Orange Sauce and Winter Citrus Pudding, both to be served for dinner the same day they are baked or stowed away in the freezer for a later meal.

Breakfast becomes a special meal when the main feature is a waffle topped with a syrupy orange slice and a hot, cooked and crispy browned pork sausage patty. This winter menu includes stewed prunes and apricots, eggs cooked in their shells and hot chocolate or coffee.

Chili, Hash Appear in New Cans

Good news for ice fishermen, hunters and other outdoorsmen this winter is the newest idea in packing of canned corn beef hash and chili.

This packing of established meat items in individual dinner-size cooking containers is being launched by a national manufacturer of canned meats.

A Common Language Corned beef hash and chili are the first products to be packed in the new containers and offered for sale beginning this month in Wisconsin stores.

Each container holds seven cans of meat, one-fourth ounces of food, and a generous dinner size serving.

The containers are packed four to a carton. The containers may be placed in a 450-degree oven for 15 minutes at a time. Mr. Ndimya says that those so engaged home, or may be cooked directly over open fire or other called farmers.

14-Year-Old Should Spend Time on Sports and Studying

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 14-year-old son is driving me crazy. In this state he can get a learner's permit at 15, but he won't be 15 until May. For the last three months he has spent every extra minute in the car—starting, stopping, backing up and going a few feet forward—in the driveway.

My husband said the boy used half a tank of gas over the weekend and he didn't go anywhere.

The 14-year-old is highly competitive with his brother who is 16. The 16-year-old is car crazy, too, and it's probable that he'll get a car from his grandmother for his 17th birthday.

He insists the girls will look at a boy unless he has a car. Furthermore, he has sold her that a car is the key to success, wife not a pal. What is your advice?

In the meantime, their grades vice?—Not Dead Yet.

Dear Boxed: The first thing you can do is put the kibosh on Granny's gift. A 17-year-old who is doing just fair in school should not have a car.

Next you can ask yourself why your sons seem to have so much spare time. They should be busy with school work, Scouting, science projects, sports, hobbies—the list is endless.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a retired farmer, 58 years of age, with a grown family. My wife passed away two years ago. I've taken out a few women, but I was never interested in getting married again until now. I'd marry Dolly in a minute, but one thing is standing in the way. She does not want to get married.

Dolly's husband died four years ago. She is 52 years of age and looks like 35. Dolly says she likes me as a friend but not as a mother.

Today I called her and asked why she said such a thing and replied: "You're too sensitive. Everyone exaggerates a little to make a point. You have no sense of humor." I'd like

Dear Not Yet: Date other women. This may encourage Dolly to retool her thinking.

After six months if Dolly still wants to be your pal, give her a Methodist handshake and find a woman who is interested in marriage.

DEAR ANN: My cousin and I went all through school together and have been lifelong friends. We've had crushes on the same fellows, and were competitors in debate and oratory.

Recently she has made some cutting remarks. I was shocked by a number of people in my presence that in our younger days we had crushes on the same fellows, and were competitors in debate and oratory.

I did this once. I did this once. I did this once.

Dear Not Laughing: People who make cutting remarks and then criticize your sense of humor are destructive and they don't deserve to be counted as friends.

Tell your cousin your sense of humor is just fine which is more than can be said for her integrity. And next time don't wait till the next day. Nail her on the spot.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Synthetic Fabrics Need Special Care

For women who sew, the early months of the year signal that it is time to choose fabrics for their spring and summer wardrobes.

The selection of types of fabrics on the market today is endless. Now with homesewing, come problems never confronted by Grandmother. Grandmother, without detracting from her skill, had a relatively simple task, for she usually worked with only a few fabrics, the qualities which she knew well from long experience. The modern seamstress can choose from dozens of fabrics, and though she can suit the fabric to the occasion, it is impossible for the average seamstress to be familiar with all the qualities of all the fabrics that are available to her today.

Care Needed

To be practical as well as chic, seamstresses must be just as careful in the selection of fabrics as they are in choosing a pattern and turning a fine seam. Hasty and unwise purchases can too easily result in shrunken, faded or discolored garments.

Because warmer weather apparel will be laundered more frequently, washability standards should serve as a guiding factor in purchasing materials.

Shoppers are to check the labels on the bolt before making a purchase. These labels often carry the same information concerning shrinkage, colorfastness and laundering precautions which is available on hangtags of ready-to-wear garments.

Check Terms

Certain terms, however, such as the word "pre-shrunk" can be misleading. Unless the manufacturer's specifications of the maximum percentage of shrinkage are listed then "pre-shrunk" is not an absolute guarantee.

One to two per cent shrinkage is ordinary and acceptable. But, if the percentage is not given any amount of shrinkage may be expected.

When buying striped or printed material, search for the fabric that has the pattern woven materials such as the type on into the material. If buying an ordinary printed fabric, checkers should not gamble when in the reverse side to see whether doubt about the washability of the dye has penetrated. Fabrics a certain fabric.

A wise selection with dyes that have penetrated will result in a more practical and pleasing finished garment than those which are mere-

4-Year-Old Converses Over Infinity, Likes to Count

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: My 4-year-old son just sent my daughter one hankie.

Should I continue to encourage my daughter to write and feel close to her grandmother or what? I don't want my daughter to believe that everyone except me is fickle. But I also don't want her to leave herself wide open for being hurt and ignored.

MRS. S. S.

Why not ask Granny what she plans? In as forthright a manner as possible, minus any emotional pleadings, write her that you think she would prefer it if you played down the letter writing and visits and you're checking to see if this is agreeable. Be equally direct with your daughter.

Remind her that when she has new friends to think about she doesn't worry about her old ones. So she shouldn't expect other people, even grandmothers, to be any different.

Dear Dr. Jones: We live in a two-family house and the people downstairs have one child, a 7-year-old girl. She has very strange ideas and habits and argues with her parents constantly.

She likes to come up here to play with my 11-month-old daughter. Could any of this girl's strange ideas wear off on my girl?

MRS. T. G.

The strangest idea is that your infant needs playmates now or for the next year or so! She doesn't. She just needs plenty of chance to roam around your home to investigate the objects around her. And the chance to play with you and snuggle.

The neighbor girl will always be too old to be a fit childhood companion for your daughter, anyhow. So limit her visits strictly to ones with you alone—that is, if this unhappy little girl finds comfort in such meetings.

Dr. Jones replies personally to every letter she receives from her readers. Send your questions, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Dr. Eve Jones, care of this newspaper.

Cinders On Blocks Of Cement

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: In building a dry well, could I substitute cement blocks for cinder blocks?

A: Either cement blocks or cinder blocks (or rocks) can be used for a dry well. The important thing to remember is not to use any mortar between them.

Q: We have an old chest we would like to refinish. But it has been stored for 30 years and has a musty odor. What could we do to remove this odor?

A: If possible, remove the drawers and then air everything outdoors in the sun for about a week. If odor remains, replace drawers and sprinkle a generous quantity of mothballs in each one and keep tightly shut for 10 days or two weeks; mothballs and flakes are excellent deodorizers as well as moth repellents. When refinishing chest, be sure to coat all inner surfaces (clean, bare wood) with pure, fresh, white shellac (thinned half and half with denatured alcohol).

Q: What is the best kind of insulation to use on a brick veneer house?

A: If the house is already finished by pleat.

Changes Predicted

These are changes predicted by Walter P. Margulies, president of an international firm of marketing consultants and industrial designers. He explains:

"Retailing's next big breakthrough will be in television. The average housewife is growing tired of wasting her time in giant shopping complexes and of spending long, dreary intervals at the check-out counters. Why should she, when it is becoming technically feasible to coordinate routine shopping through a telephone-TV hookup to distribution warehouses located outside of town?"

All Credit Charging

This is how the TV shopping will be done: The shopper will phone her store and ask to be shown a video tape of supplies she's interested in. She'll make her selection over the phone and the computerized warehouse will mechanically assemble her goods and ready them for delivery to her home.

"And all of this type of shopping for daily, routine goods will be done by credit, with the charges probably being billed through telephone companies," Margulies suggests.

Store to Door

"On the other hand," he goes on, "shopping for the personal and more expensive items will involve a high degree of personal attention. We foresee store-to-door vans that will bring these items right to the housewife. We also foresee the development of groups of specialty shops clustered together in a central part of town. Large department stores will get into the picture by concentrating in the specialty field, grouping their qual-

Sheinwold Refuse Trick at Right Time

It is sometimes advisable to refuse an early trick in an opponent's long suit even when you have two sure tricks in the suit. Be sure you start early enough to make your holdup play effective.

South thought of refusing the first spade trick but quite properly decided against it. A shift to hearts might be just as dangerous as a spade continuation.

After winning the first trick South led the eight of diamonds and let it ride for a finesse. East pounced on the trick with the queen of diamonds, comforting himself with the thought that he would be able to hold up the ace of diamonds the next time the suit was led.

When East returned a spade, South held up. This was perfectly effective. The delayed holdup was just as good as an immediate holdup.

Continues Diamonds

South won the third round of spades and went back to diamonds. East refused the trick, but his holdup was ineffective. Dummy won the second diamond trick and continued the suit to force out the ace.

No matter what East returned South could get to dummy with the king of hearts to run the diamonds, making a total of ten tricks.

Now go back to the second trick, when South led the eight of diamonds for a finesse. East's correct play is to refuse this trick.

When South leads his second diamond, East wins the trick and clears the spades. South cannot lead a diamond from his own hand. He can get to dum-

Beauty Deciding Factor In Convention Roll Calls

BY RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans have a secret weapon developed today—a beautiful lady with mosaic eyes, Mrs. Polly Buck by name.

Mrs. Buck will call the roll of the states for the presidential nomination at San Francisco in July. The party high command is counting on her to help fetch

the television audience.

Too bad there are not more color television sets, because black-and-white simply won't do justice to the subject.

Mrs. Buck's key role was revealed Thursday at a luncheon of the Republican National Committee. She went to Bennington College, Vermont, but left to marry C.

Douglas Buck Jr., now an architect. They live with their four children, 9 to 14 years old, in Greenville, just outside Wilmington, Del.

The newsman had difficulty deciding the color of her eyes, so he asked.

"Blue, or green," she replied.

"Oh, just call them mosaic. They seem to be different colors."

The reporter explained that in interviewing beauty queens, it is mandatory to ask the measurements.

"I haven't the slightest clue," she said. "I haven't been measured lately."

She does know, however, that she is 5 feet 6 1/2 and weighs 129.

More School Likely For City Pupils

Calendar Proposed to Appleton Boards Adds 2 Days to Schedule

Appleton public school pupils probably will spend two more days in school next year.

Calendars for the 1964-1965 school year proposed to both the Board of Education and the Board of Vocational and Adult Education increase the number of school days from 177 to 179. The boards are expected to act on the administration's calendars at their next meetings.

The youngsters may frown, but the increase has the complete support of the state department of public instruction, which recommends a school year of 180 teaching days—and maybe more in the future.

The two extra days next year will be trimmed off the Christmas vacation. With next Christmas falling on a Friday, the holidays will not start until the preceding Wednesday and will continue through the following week.

Extra Vacation
Appleton students may get an extra week of vacation this summer, but they will make up for it the following June. Classes are scheduled to start Sept. 8, the Tuesday after Labor Day, and run through June 11, 1965. Classes this year started Sept. 2 and will end June 5.

Because of the late date of Labor Day this year, many area schools are expected to start classes the preceding week. Appleton Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz said most Mid-east Conference schools, which include other Fox Cities schools, are expected to start the week before Labor Day.

The Appleton school board's policy has been not to open school until after Labor Day, and it probably will stick to it this year. The one time it tried starting earlier, protests were heavy.

Calendars Similar

The proposed calendars for the public schools and the vocational school are similar. Classes will start Sept. 8 and end June 11 for both. Holidays will include Nov. 26 and 27 for Thanksgiving, Dec. 23 through Jan. 3 for Christmas, April 12 through 16 for Easter and May 31 for Memorial Day.

Other free days for the kids but not the teachers will be convention days on Nov. 5 and 6, April 9 for the public schools and April 30 for the vocational schools; and teacher orientation days, which will be August 31 through Sept. 4 for the public schools, Sept. 1 through 4 for the vocational school and Jan. 25 for both.

The teachers will have 190 "contract days" but only 179 actual teaching days. Convention and orientation days and holidays also count as contract

Chicago Crime Boss Said to Face Removal

Newspaper Reports Syndicate Leaders Oppose Giancana

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune said today that top crime syndicate leaders have voted to dethrone Sam (Momo) Giancana, reputed boss of the Chicago underworld.

The newspaper said it learned the decision was reached at a meeting last month of eight mob leaders, including Anthony (Tony) Accardo and Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, charter members of the prohibition-era gang once ruled by the late Al Capone.

The decision to oust Giancana was learned through underworld sources and police investigators, the Tribune said.

It said the top leaders of the syndicate were displeased with Giancana's behavior which has resulted in widespread publicity, which the leaders feel is detrimental to the syndicate's operations.

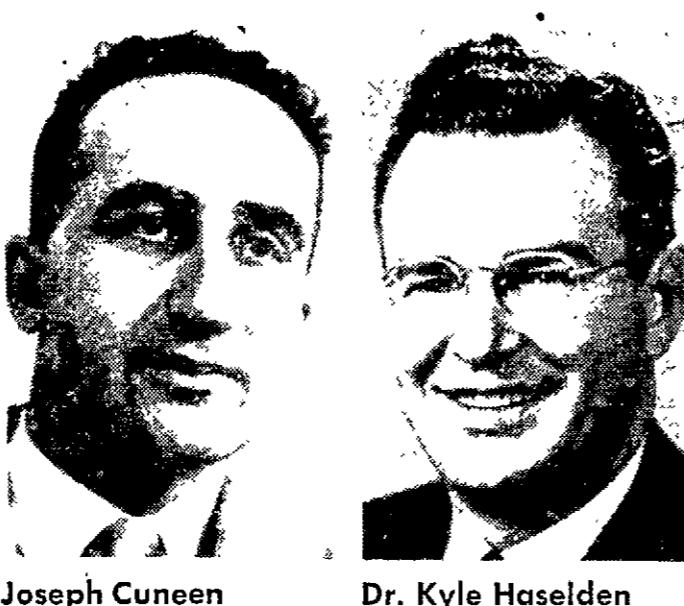

Unfavorable Publicity
This behavior includes his courtship of a night club singer, legal quarrels with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and frequent outbursts of temper, the newspaper reported.

It said the method of removing Giancana from his role of syndicate boss has not yet been decided.

The Tribune said other gang leaders attending the meeting to decide Giancana's future were Sam Battaglia, William (Willie Potatoes) Daddano, Felix (Milwaukee Phil) Alderisio, Rudolph (Rudy) Fratta, his brother, Frank (One Ear) Fratta, and Albert (Obbie) Fratella.

GOP Favorite Sons Near-Record Crop

Maneuver Could Sew Up as Many as 350 Pre-Convention Votes for Early Ballotting

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are stacking up a near-record crop of favorite son aspirants who might sew up as many as 350 votes in early convention presidential nomination balloting.

If all eight presently discussed home-state candidates materialize, such active seekers of the nomination as Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller could find themselves substantially short of the necessary 655 votes when the San Francisco convention opens July 13.

A sweep in the presidential primaries could alter this situation by collapsing some of the favorite son movements.

Delegate Votes

For practical purposes, however, the number of primaries influencing delegate votes where contests are likely has been reduced to 10, with a total of 299 convention votes. These include New Hampshire, Maryland, District of Columbia, West Virginia, Florida, Indiana, Illinois, South Dakota, Oregon and California.

Wisconsin, Ohio and Pennsylvania have been eliminated from the primary lists by favorite son arrangements. Wisconsin Republicans plan to give jazz trombone of Jack Teagarden their 30 votes to Rep. John W. Byrnes, Ohio's 58 will go to Gov. James A. Rhodes, and Pennsylvania's 64 to Gov. William W. Scranton. Michigan, without a primary, will cast its 48 votes for Gov. George Romney.

Scranton, who is looked upon by many as a potential major candidate, got a hint Wednesday that he might become an early ballot beneficiary of New Jersey's 40 convention votes. That state has a primary, but major contenders may avoid it.

Top Republican

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., the state's top Republican office holder, listed Scranton as a "very attractive possibility" for the nomination. He said the governor is "very hot at the moment."

Colorado Republicans who have leaned toward Goldwater in the past expect to make some decisions at a meeting in Denver this weekend on whether they will back Sen. Gordon Allott as a favorite son.

If Colorado puts its 18 votes in the pot for Allott, the senator's friends hope Idaho will follow suit with its 14 and Wyoming with its 12.

Kentucky Republicans may designate either Sen. Thruston B. Morton or his colleague, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, as a favorite son to hold the state's 24 votes.

Judd on List

In Minnesota, former Rep. Walter H. Judd has agreed to let his name go on the list. That state delegation will cast 28 votes.

If Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, should announce Jan. 27 that she will become a presidential candidate, most of her friends think Maine Republicans would be happy to designate her as their "favorite daughter" and give her 14 votes on the first ballot.

The possibility of favorite son support for Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, the 1960 vice presidential nominee, is likely to be considered in Massachusetts, if Lodge's friends make any headway toward getting him in the race.

Massachusetts, which has a primary, has 34 convention votes. Judd is listed as a favorite son to hold the state's 24 votes.

Sen. Reuben LaFave, R-Ontario, the committee chairman, announced the committee will hold public hearings on sections of the tax law which have brought complaints to the Tax Department and lawmakers. Among subjects to be aired, he said, are real estate assessment appeals, and the three per cent tax on household electricity.

George Corning, head of the State Department of Taxation, said that after Feb. 1 the department will begin to invoke a 25 per cent penalty in cases of negligence. The sales tax will have been in effect for two years on Feb. 1. Corning said, and all dealers should be familiar with it by now.

Corning said that the sales tax law gave the department no authority to waive the penalty.

But he added he would meet with Milan to attempt to work out a compromise proposal.

Rocky Says Goldwater Out of Step

BY ROBERT T. GRAY

KEENE, N. H. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York pictured Sen. Barry Goldwater today as out of step with sored by the U.S. Public Health Service for higher education.

The governor, contesting with Foster, said that the findings of the National Education Act of 1958 and 1963 against major programs for helping colleges and universities, and the three per cent tax on household electricity.

Affirmative Leadership

"The Republican party's success in the forthcoming presidential election will importantly depend upon the affirmative leadership its nominee gives for federal education measures," Rockefeller said.

He noted that most Republicans in Congress had voted for both programs — the National Defense Education Act of 1958 and the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963.

Fox Valley Center Plans Summer School

8-Week Session
Will be First One;
Courses Not Final

The University of Wisconsin Fox Valley Center will offer an eight-week summer session for the first time next summer.

The session will run from June 23 through Aug. 14. Classes will be set up either in the morning or in the evening, or possibly at both times.

Final plans have not been made on which courses will be offered. Classes probably will be available in English, social sciences, mathematics and a laboratory science, and there may be a sub-freshman level non-credit course in English.

The courses to be offered will depend on enrollment and interest, according to center director Verne Imhoff. It is unlikely that any graduate level courses will be offered, he said.

Open To All

The summer session will be open to students attending any branch of the University of Wisconsin or any other institution of higher learning, and to adults. Students wishing to enroll for credit must be students in good standing at the institution they attend regularly.

Resident fees will be $40 for one and two credits, $60 for three and four credits and $80 for five through eight credits. Eight credits will be the maximum any student will be allowed to take. Non-credit fees are the same.

Fee for non-residents of Wisconsin will be $125 for one and two credits, $187 for three and four credits and $250 for five through eight credits.

Preliminary Registration

Classes will meet two hours per week per credit.

Persons interested in attending the summer session are to make arrangements for preliminary registration in person at the center as soon as possible and not later than March 1. Those with questions about eligibility or credits may confer with Miss Lila Locksmith or H. L. Zillmer, student advisers.

A final decision on courses scheduled for the summer session is expected during the spring recess.

Jaycettes Will Assist Heart Fund

Thirty young women from the Appleton Jaycettes have undertaken the recruiting of 840 block workers and captains for the house to house Heart Fund campaign on Heart Sunday, Feb. 23.

Mrs. James Murphy, 1128 W. Oklahoma St., Jaycette president, said two members of the organization report each morning and each afternoon at the tension, ending almost five years Heart Fund office in the Zuelke Building and begin phoning. They will work until the job is in motion to have plans pre-approved so construction can begin serve on two "shifts" or more if necessary to complete the recruiting.

Organizational work for the Heart Fund campaign, which is traditionally concentrates its fund-raising efforts in the month of February, began this month Franklin west to N. Richmond with the opening of headquarter Street—ran into strong opposition. Ald. Al Stoegbauer the various groups to place the music department from Ald. Al Stoegbauer supervisor (4th).

Mrs. Pat Massopust said the first hours of recruiting were highly successful.

According to Dennis Herrling, back to committee, which would have a committee report sent city chairman, "The work which have meant delay, said the most Jaycettes have undertaken logical project was to extend Washington Street in a straight line through to State Street.

"This is the strongest conviction I have ever had since becoming a member of this council," Stoegbauer said.

Carl Roehl, an Appleton businessman, also advocated extension of Washington in State Street. He criticized the city's one-way street plan as he did Tuesday before the board of public works.

"I want to see a plan for this street extension before I'm ready to vote," Stoegbauer said.

Three Weeks Delay

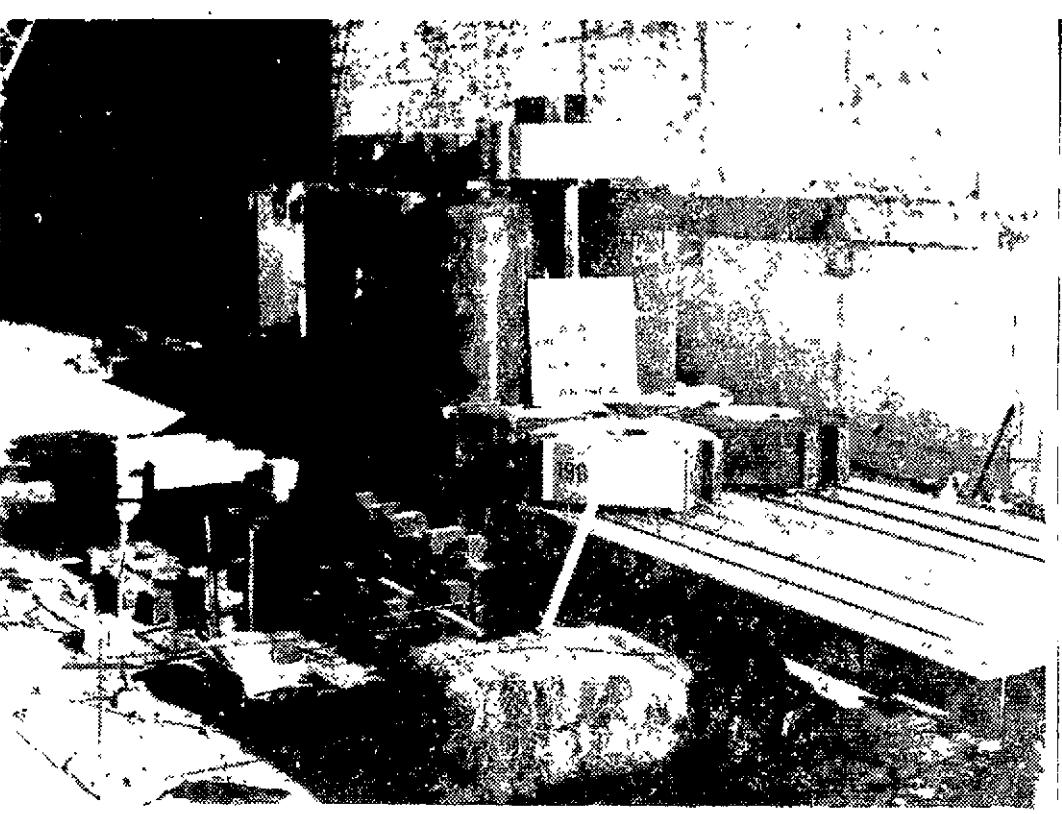

Ald. Mrs. Dorothy Stillings (7th) said there would be "at least three more weeks delay" if the matter was sent back to committee. She said the council at meetings in recent years approved the route for the extension.

Mrs. Stillings also said the city recently received approval from the Wisconsin Public Service Commission to proceed with the work, but to complete it in a year.

"How much longer are we going to procrastinate before solving the street problem?" Mrs. Stillings asked.

Stoegbauer said he asked to see the street route plan a week ago, and none was available at the planner's office. "A few days later I read in the paper there was a plan and recommendations were made," Stoegbauer said. "Some things don't

The accident apparently occurred when a fellow workman was pounding on a shaft with a sledge hammer. The shaft was reported to have been knocked into the air by hammer blows and struck Anderson.

Some 240 Tons of Steel rest on a 14-inch test piling at the site of construction for an addition to Aid Association for Lutherans building. The load is twice that which each piling will carry when the building is completed. The weights were placed on the pilings overnight and will remain on them for 48 hours. (Post-Crescent Photos)

A representative of a Chicago firm making piling tests at the AAL building site checks a hydraulic jack between 240 tons of steel and a 14-inch piling on which the weight rests. Should the piling settle, architects would re-examine plans and determine corrective measures. A similar test will be conducted next week on another piling. The beam is driven some 55 feet into the ground, about five feet above bed rock.

Burke Firm Retained to Do Planning

Neenah Council Reverses Decision Made Earlier

NEENAH — Neenah's Common Council reversed a Jan. 2 decision to terminate the city's contract with the Ralph Burke Firm, Park Ridge, Ill., planners for the Swatscheno Farm tract, by a 6-4 vote.

Consequently, the Burke Company is still Neenah's Swatscheno planners according to the original contract, but no one is quite sure what they are going to plan.

J. L. Donoghue, representing the Burke firm, met with the council in an informal meeting prior to the council meeting.

Apparently, the allotment of the 60 acres for school purposes was discussed because Ald. Carl Coenen, at the council session, asked for any alderman who voted "Yes" to the school board acreage allotment to make a motion to reconsider the move, after talking with the Burke firm.

Vote to Terminate
This elicited no response other than proposal from Ald. Peter Fara to terminate the Burke contract.

A vote was taken with Ald. Sidney Donaldson, Donald Gornall, Wilmot Houpt, Harry Miller, Warren Sanders and Harold Young voting "no", while Ald. Fara, Coenen, Ewald Miller and Don Kuehneman affirmed the motion.

After the defeat of the move to terminate the Burke contract, a motion to hold the contract in abeyance was offered.

Council Flounders'

This proposal brought forth the ire of Council President Sanders who commented, "I've never served on a council that flounders as this one. We don't know where we're going."

He mentioned that the planners indicated it was possible for them to come up with a variety of uses for the land, in alternate plans.

"I think a planner can lay out that property so that we'll save many times what we'll pay him."

The Burke firm was hired for about $3,500. According to the proposal to terminate the contract, Neenah would end the pact with a payment of one-third the original cost.

Kuehneman argued that the city has no definite use for the land other than to select a school site which has been allotted.

Coenen Objects

Affirming this position Coenen said, "We've committed 85 acres of this land, 60 for school purposes and 25 acres in the wooded area for recreation. Add to this the 10 additional acres that the parks and recreation department has requested for an outdoor swimming pool and we've used up 95 acres of the 160. There's not much land left to plan."

The council adjourned with no further action on the Swatscheno farm other than to retain the Burke contract.

Goldwater Group Includes 12 From Fox Valley Area

A state committee to support the candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater (R - Ariz.) for the presidency includes 12 Fox Valley area Republicans.

Announced by Wayne J. Hood, La Crosse, chairman of the Wisconsin Goldwater Committee, to the Menasha Fire Department was a 73-member body. Listed among the members are Mrs. A. P. Popelka, 1907 N. Gillett St., Appleton; Ted Neely, 317 Lopas St., Menasha; Gregory E. Pauly, New Holstein; and John Mosling, E. G. Steinbuhler and Robert Wollangk, all of Oshkosh.

Representing the 7th District will be Carl Sturm, Manawa, along with eight others in the district.

Eighth District committee members are Emory Ansorge, Gillett; Ronald Neerdal, DePere; Mark Stewart, Green Bay; Dr. Kenneth Pinagar, Marinette, and Erwin Nies, Manitowoc.

Bentzen Named Supervisor For Neenah's Eighth Ward

NEENAH — Mayor Carl E. Loehning Wednesday night appointed Fred Bentzen to succeed Charles L. Soukup, as Eighth Ward county supervisor and received unanimous council approval.

Soukup resigned recently because he was leaving the community.

Bentzen, who retired from Kimberly-Clark Corp. in 1953, previously served as a county supervisor.

The council accepted and filed a letter from James E. Clark school district business manager, stating that the 1963 school board budget has a $14,598 balance.

He said that $4,450 of this would be used to pay for the senior high school tennis fence contract, which was issued last year to be completed this year.

Clark also said that the remaining amount would be applied to the school board budget cut of $70,000 ordered by the council.

Hearing

The council authorized a public hearing on curb and gutter work on Oak Street from Congress to Cecil Streets; Western Avenue from Adams to Main Streets; Harrison Street from Clark to Main Streets; Fourth Street from Forest Avenue to Nicolet Boulevard and Clark Street.

Authorization was given to the presentation of service awards to Edgar "Pat" Patterson and Wallace Pingel, two retiring city employees.

The council was notified by

Menasha Kiwanians To Install Officers

On Jan. 23 members will travel to Oshkosh to meet Charles Swain, president of Kiwanis International.

During the last meeting, members voted $30 to be presented to the Menasha Fire Department toward the purchase of a film concerning fire prevention. A. P. Popelka, 1907 N. Gillett St., Appleton; Ted Neely, 317 Lopas St., Menasha; Gregory E. Pauly, New Holstein; and John Mosling, E. G. Steinbuhler and Robert Wollangk, all of Oshkosh.

Four for 4th Ward Neenah Council Race

NEENAH — Neenah's Fourth Ward alderman race today received a fourth possible candidate when Fredric Reichel, 640 Knight Ave., Neenah, took out nomination papers.

He is a salesman and mechanic for Abraham Carpet Co. Incumbent Ald. Wilmot Houpt is the only candidate in that ward who has filed papers.

George V. Skowronski, a challenger for one of the three available school board positions today filed his signed papers to be the first in that race to do so.

Thus far Neenah has 24 candidates for 15 open positions.

However, still only three races with any competition. These are the mayoral race with three possible candidates, and rumors of a fourth; the school board contest with seven possible candidates for three places; the school board contest with seven possible candidates; and the Fourth Ward alderman race with four possible candidates.

The five remaining alderman positions and the five available county supervisor posts only have one candidate each.

KAUKAUNA—All officers of the Kaukauna Athletic Club were re-elected at the annual meeting Saturday at the VFW hall.

Renamed were Robert Kerscher, president; Daniel Schommer, vice president; Roger Bellinger, secretary, and Jack Hilgenberg, treasurer. Named to 2-year terms as directors were Emmett Kavanaugh and Donald Lappen.

Named to 1-year terms were Carl Ploetz, H. L. Wheeler, former director of the Enoch Pratt Library at Baltimore, treasurer and considered an outstanding authority on library construction and the author of several books on that subject.

The library board also approved hiring Irion and Reineke, Oshkosh architects, to present preliminary plans for presentation to the public in connection with the referendum.

Rasmussen said there would be disadvantages in extending Washington Street to State or Richmond Street.

There is bound to be quite a bit of disalignment along such a route," he said.

Traffic Changes

Rasmussen conceded, the extension of Franklin to Richmond

were authorized by the council might result in traffic pattern to contact the state resource development chairman and ascertain whether the Neenah slough

is part of the survey.

Steogbauer restated his position, then withdrew his request to refer back.

Mayor Mitchell assured Stoeg-bauer Franklin Street extended would be "a straight shot" with no jogs.

The council then approved the route, and property purchase negotiations.

Alderman at War With Mayor Over Zoning

Fischer's ward a petition for re-zoning had been denied, but the property was sold, a home constructed and a storage trucking operation headquartered there.

"You took an oath to uphold the ordinances of the City of Appleton and now you are telling us to forget about these vio-

"In Violation"

"I would also like to tell you Larry's Ambulance is also in direct violation of the zoning ordinance—the same ordinance

which you have taken an oath to enforce," Mitchell said.

Mitchell said he received a telephone call prior to the last plan commission meeting in which Fischer asked two persons who received violation notices from the city be heard.

Mitchell said he made arrangements for the meeting and had the building inspector and city attorney attend.

Mitchell said Fischer failed to show up at the hearing.

"You, Mr. Fischer, did not even have the common courtesy to call and tell us you would not be able to make it to the meeting," Mitchell said.

Earlier, Ald. Douglas Ogilvie (12th) complained some aldermen were moving in and out of the room and answered roll calls when absent from their seats. He wanted to know if this was permissible.

2 Paper Firms Admitted to Industry Unit

Information Service Directors Announce New Memberships

NEENAH — Directors of the Wisconsin Paper Industry Information Service announced today that memberships had been voted to two additional paper manufacturing firms.

They are Whiting-Plover Paper Co., Stevens Point, and Nicolet Paper Co., West De Pere. The two companies join 24 other primary paper manufacturers in the information service, an association of the state's major pulp and paper firms which cooperate in a program to disseminate information about the industry.

Products of both firms have been known nationally for years — Whiting-Plover in the fine business, writing and printing paper fields, and Nicolet primarily in glassine and greaseproof papers used for food wrappers and other functional purposes.

The presidents of both companies, Thomas Leech of Whiting-Plover and Henry Fowler of Nicolet, will sit on the information service board of directors.

The Whiting-Plover Paper Co. was founded in 1892 and long has been one of the country's leading producers of high-quality cotton-fiber bond paper. Its products are distributed in all 50 states. In addition to its Plover Bond watermark on letterheads, it produces private watermarks featuring the names or trademarks of many large and small companies. Other end-uses include legal forms of virtually all descriptions.

Nicolet Mill
The original Nicolet mill was founded by the American Writing Paper Co., which from 1894 until about 1920 made rag content papers. The mill closed down for several years in the Twenties, but was reorganized by some Fox River Valley industrialists as a 10-ton-a-day glassine mill in 1927 and has been growing ever since.

Major expansions were completed in 1960 and 1963 and the Nicolet plant today has a daily capacity of 120 tons. It is the third largest producer of glassine and greaseproof papers. It makes a wide variety of waxed-wax laminated, metallized and other coated sheets used primarily for automatic packaging of food products.

Nicolet Paper Co. is affiliated with Milprint Inc. of Milwaukee and is a subsidiary of Philip Morris.

Davis Cup Team Gets Welcome From President

Johnson Tells Squad It Shows Desire for Excellence

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson welcomed the Davis Cup back to the United States, gave the tennis players who won it a grand tour of the White House and learned he has a tennis court in the back yard.

With the large 63-oz. silver trophy gleaming on a table in the Cabinet room, Johnson told the young men Wednesday their victory proved they have "the desire for the pursuit of excellence."

On hand for the ceremony were Chuck McKinley and his wife, Dennis Ralston, Marty Fjesssen, nonplaying captain Bob Kelleher and his son Jeff, and Edward A. Turville, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

From All Parts

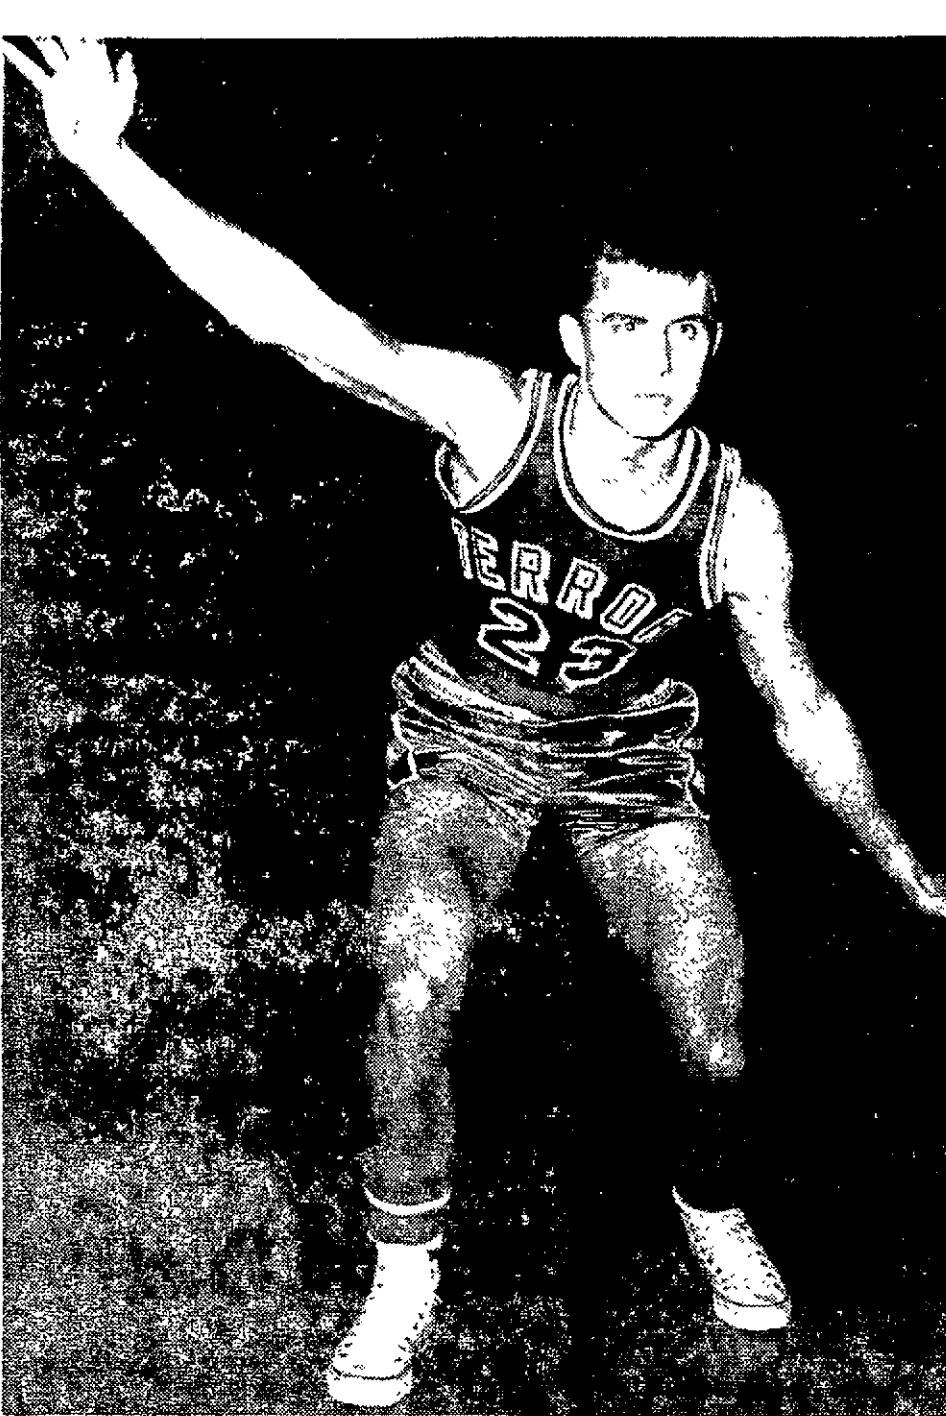

Johnson said he was pleased that the players—who captured the Cup from Australia last month—were from all parts of the country, especially the two who are products of Trinity University in San Antonio.

This was a reference to McKinley and Frank Froehling, another team member recovering from an operation and not at the White House, who both attended the Texas school. The fifth member of the team, Gene Scott, also was unable to attend.

During the tour, McKinley asked the President: "Do you have a tennis court here?"

"I don't think so," he replied.

Beloit and Coe will furnish the the opposition for Lawrence this weekend as the Vikes will try to move above the coveted .500 mark for both the Midwest Conference and over-all seasons.

Both games will be played in Alexander Gym. The Friday starting time is 7:30 p.m., while Saturday's game starts at 1:30 p.m.

Coach Clyde Rusk's charges gave a good account of themselves as they closed the gap in the late minutes of last Saturday's loss to the leading Ripon quintet. The Viking record is now 2-3 in conference and 4-4, over-all.

There will be an added incentive that Rusk will pass on to his eagles Friday night, as the New York Coach Red Sullivan

Vike coach played with Beloit in the 1940s.

Terrors and Ships to Collide Friday in Key FRVC Battle

Winner Takes Sole Possession of First Place; Game Features Three 20-Point-Plus Scorers

found dueling the Manitowoc fleet of Ships the most perilous of his assignments. In 20 jousts with Manitowoc during the last 10 years, AHS has been victorious on only four occasions. The Ships have repelled Emanuel-directed Terror attacks seven successive times—including losses by 95-69 and 66-57 margins last season.

At the Ships' helm will be a newcomer, Jim Dietrich. He succeeded the veteran John Jung, who climaxed an outstanding career by directing Manitowoc to the 1963 state public school championship.

The Terrors and the Ships were ranked 1-2 in pre-season FRVC evaluation and have done nothing to discourage this high regard for their abilities.

After being walloped by Kimberly in its inaugural, AHS has powered its way to eight straight victories—five of them over conference rivals.

The Ships lost twice in three non-league outings—against Kimberly and Menasha—before zeroing in on FRVC foes and crushing four of them by margins ranging from 24 to 45 points. In addition to their 5-2 over-all record, the Ships beat a strong Manitowoc alumni team, 91-85.

It will be a double weekend for Manitowoc, because the Ships cruise back home Saturday night to take on a dangerous Oshkosh team. The Terrors will be idle Saturday because their game with Fond du Lac was played Jan. 3—by mutual agreement.

Each of the other FRVC teams are at least two games behind AHS and Manly in the loss column. Friday, Oshkosh plays host to Fond du Lac, while the Green Bay and the Sheboygan teams are embroiled in intra-city feuds. Other Saturday night pairings are: North at West and East at South.

5 Common Foes

Manitowoc and AHS have played five common foes, and their performances against them are quite similar. Both FRVC powers beat West, East and Fond du Lac, while losing to Kimberly (the score was 87-78 against the Ships, while the Terrors bowed, 81-53). Appleton, however, nipped Menasha, 57-56, while Manitowoc lost to the Jays, 78-73, in overtime.

The explosive Ships have averaged 87.6 points per game, while AHS has scored at a 71.2 rate. The Terrors have a decided defensive edge, however, with an average yield of only 55 points for nine games, while Manly has allowed 65.6 per contest.

Because this will strain the capacity of the two hills, no more students can be accepted. Only those who have registered will be placed in classes Saturday.

Students should report to the area for which they indicated a preference, and they should plan to attend all three outdoor sessions at the same hill. They will be split into instruction groups Saturday and they will stay in those same groups for all three.

The primary reasons are a preference, and they should plan to attend all three outdoor sessions at the same hill. They will be split into instruction groups Saturday and they will stay in those same groups for all three.

Kimberly High Quint No. 1 in First WIAA Ratings of Season

MADISON (AP) — Kimberly's Papermakers top the Big Sixteen and Mauston heads the Little Sixteen in the first 1964 high school basketball ratings of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Manitowoc, the defending state champion, failed to receive a berth in the Big Sixteen. Dodgeville, runnerup in the state tournament last March, was ranked seventh with a 7-0 record.

Mauston, owner of an 8-0 record and leader of the South Central Conference, was the top choice in the balloting of the Little Sixteen, which includes seven undefeated entries.

Valders, 10-0, was second among the smaller schools, followed by Wausau, 9-1, Weyauwega, 9-0, and Spencer, 9-0.

Norman Snead Will Undergo Knee Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Norman Snead, Washington Redskins quarterback, will undergo a knee operation next week, the National Football League club announced Wednesday.

Dr. George Resta, team physician, described the operation as "exploratory." He said there would be removal of damaged tissue in Snead's right knee along with examination to see if anything else is wrong.

Resta said X rays show that the cartilage of Snead's knee is all right.

The spokesman said there was no indication as to how long Snead would be laid up, but that the knee should be healed long before the Redskins begin practice sessions next July.

Gordon Zillges, 6-foot, 7-inch, senior, will be starting for the Kimberly Papermakers at center against the Menasha Bluejays on the Kimberly court Friday night. The Terrors, however, were handicapped by the illness absence of defensive stars Chuck McKee

Cincinnati Loses To Bradley, 87-77

41-Game Streak on Home Floor

Shattered; Davidson Wins 14th

BY TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The end of an era seems at hand for Cincinnati in college basketball.

For six straight years, starting with the advent of Oscar Robertson, "the Big O," the Bearcats have swept all before them in the tough Missouri Valley Conference and last March just missed an unprecedented third straight national championship by losing in overtime to Chicago Loyola.

Robertson graduated after the 1960 season and Coach George Smith moved up to director of athletics. But the triumphant parade continued under new Coach Ed Jucker whose teams won a fantastic 82 of 89 games the last three years. Included were winning streaks of 27 and 37 straight.

Most in 5 Years

Now, however, the Bearcats already have lost four games, the most in five years, and the hardest part of their MVC schedule still is ahead. UC still is dangerous and eighth-ranked nationally with nine wins against major opposition, but the Bearcats can't afford any more slips.

The Bradley Braves administered UC's fourth defeat Wednesday night, 87-77, and in the process ended the 'Cats winning streak of 41 on their home court. In fact it was the first MVC game the Bearcats have lost in the fieldhouse.

Joe Strawder, with 33 points, and Levern Tart, with 24, broke the game wide open for Bradley in the second half. All-America Ron Bonham threw in 25 for Cincinnati, but missed his last seven shots from the field.

The fifth-ranked unbeaten Davidson Wildcats, the only other team in the Associated Press Top Ten to see action Wednesday, came through with their 14th straight triumph, a weird 32-49 decision over Richmond.

Deep Freeze

The Wildcats, ahead 48-45, didn't shoot from the field for the last 13 minutes of play as they went into a deep freeze. Their last four points came on free throws, the last after the final whistle.

Hardin Simmons registered the upset of the night by downing Oklahoma City 87-74 behind Nate Maddins' 28 points. Bud Koper, Oklahoma City star, tossed in 23 before he suffered a cut over his eye late in the game.

Bill Cunningham's 27 points and good defensive work by Bryan McSweeney on Larry Lakin sparked North Carolina to a 79-71 victory over N.C. State while West Virginia and Xavier of Ohio both exploded in the second half to defeat Penn State 84-63 and Louisville 80-79, respectively.

Terrors Play Host to Ships Friday Night

and Gary Hietpas. Hietpas played only two minutes, and McKee saw no action.

This season, with the help of the new clock-stopping rule, the Ships have broken their own record. They scored 100 points against Two Rivers and have tallied 96 twice in league play.

The most recent AHS win over Manitowoc was engineered by the 1959-60 conference championship unit—by a 59-47 margin.

Since then, Manitowoc has won two conference titles with an unbeaten record in 1960-1 and as co-champion in 1961-2. Last year, the conference title was the only honor to elude the Ships. Enroute to winning top WIAA honors, the rampaging Ships compiled a 22-3 record.

Manitowoc is led by the conference's most prolific scoring twosome since East's Tom Hughbanks and By Prentice roamed FRVC courts some half-dozen years ago. Bob Sullivan and Dave Jansson are pacing the conference scoring race with averages of 26.5 and 23.8 points, respectively. They figure to give AHS' defensive its ultimate FRVC test.

AHS' Brian Bock has the highest current league total—109 points—but he has played in an extra game. Bock's conference average is 21.8.

The trio of marksmen are also their 14th straight triumph, a setting strong paces, over-all. Sullivan's average is 25.1. Jansson's is 21.3 and Bock's is 20.3. Appleton's second best conference scorer is Gary Hietpas, with a 14.6-point average.

Sullivan, son of former University of Wisconsin and Sheboygan Redskin cager Bob Sullivan, Sr., has scored between 21 and 36 points in all games but one. East's Pat Harrington proved Sullivan could be stopped when he held him to seven points (The Many acc. save only three of 13 field shots) last Friday.

Hits 37 Points

However, Jansson stepped into the spotlight to hit on 17 of 26 shots against East and manufacture 37 points.

Manitowoc will boast a height edge over AHS. The starting front line comprises Jansson and Bill Buerstette, both 6-4, and Sullivan, 6-3. Starting at guards will be Pete Kramer (6-0) and Tom Keery (5-10).

Neil Weber, whose recent rebounding has been exceptionally strong, is the tallest Terror, at 6-4. Starting with him in the forecourt will be Bock (6-0) and Doug Ehlike (6-3). At the guards will be Hietpas and Chuck McKee, both 6-0.

MAXIMUM RANGE FOR YOUR RIFLE

MAXIMUM SPORTING RANGE IS THE RANGE WITHIN WHICH YOU CAN BE SURE OF MAKING CLEAN, CONSISTENT KILLS. SOME PEOPLE CONFUSE IT WITH THE ACTUAL RANGE A BULLET CAN FLY. FOR EXAMPLE: A .30-06 BULLET CAN TRAVEL 2 MILES, BUT IT'S MAXIMUM SPORTING RANGE IS ONLY 500 YDS! THE AVERAGE SPORTING RANGES FOR OTHER POPULAR HUNTING CALIBERS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

.25 REM., 25-35, .351 WIN., AND .401 WIN. — 100 TO 125 YARDS;

Actually two meetings were scheduled. Joe Cronin, president of the American League, met with the five-man board of directors at 10 a.m. EST. The full scale league meeting was slated for 1 p.m. EST.

Barring a complete change of heart, the owners were expected to give Finley an unanimous NO.

At least five clubs — New York, Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit and Boston—have gone on record as saying they will vote against the A's owner. Only four negative votes are required to keep him in Kansas City.

Kundla has three veterans to blend with them—6-8 center Mel Northway, 6-6 forward Bill Davis and 6-3 guard Terry Kunze.

Hudson is the blue-chipper of the lot. He's averaging 19.2 points for 13 games and hit 36 in his Big Ten debut a couple of weeks ago. He's also shooting field goals at a 47.3 per cent clip.

Kundla is not ready to predict any Big Ten championships. "It's much too early now," he said. "But it's encouraging after our 103-82 win over Michigan State. It shows what we're capable of doing, but we're still too inconsistent. If we could play like that all the time, we'd be tough."

The next three games will tell the tale. We play Northwestern twice and Michigan once. If we win all three of those, I'd say we have a very good chance."

An emergency force of nearly 3,000 officials, Army engineers, infantrymen and civilian volunteers were hunting for snow in far-off mountain regions and lugging it onto the Olympic sites.

Machines sprayed artificial snow on the bob sled and toboggan courses to stop the ice from melting in the balmy air.

Organizers are determined not to change the program, but they admit they may be forced to unless the weather changes for the games Jan. 29-Feb. 9.

A warm front that moved into this part of Austria from the West three days ago still loomed over the Tyrolean Alps, keeping temperatures well above zero. The short-range forecast was negative—more thaw and rain with only little snow in higher regions.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly early this afternoon with selected blue chips boosting the averages slightly.

The general run of key stocks showed fractional gains or losses in active trading.

Cigar manufacturers moved up sharply in response to reports that many smokers are being converted to cigars because of the government health report that linked cigarette smoking with various diseases and laid little blame on cigar and pipe smoking.

Cigarette stocks were narrowly mixed. The trend was uneven also among motors, aerospace issues, office equipments and nonferrous metals. Steels and airlines were slightly lower.

Utilities, rails and chemicals improved.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .60 at 290.4, topping Wednesday's historic closing high. Industrials were up 1.1, rails .5 and utilities .2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .71 at 775.42, still below its most recent all-time peak.

American Telephone touched a new historic high of 142½ and held a thin gain.

Prices moved irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange at 2:30.25; good to choice heifers 20.00-22.50; good to choice calves 20.00-23.00; good to choice 22.00-28.00; common all-time peak.

American Telephone touched a new historic high of 142½ and held a thin gain.

The firms also said Wednesday there had been a marked increase in orders for pipes, tobacco pouches, pipe tobacco and cigars. The report said cigar smoking is more of a health hazard than cigars or pipes.

Gross revenue, the commission told the Minneapolis city council, totaled $808,594 and expenditures were $301,555.

Attempts to shift the race to nearby Bad Gastein, site of the traditional "Silver Jug" women's races, failed when most of the men's teams instead went to Italy for races at Madonna di Campiglio.

Organizers are determined not to change the program, but they admit they may be forced to unless the weather changes for the games Jan. 29-Feb. 9.

A warm front that moved into this part of Austria from the West three days ago still loomed over the Tyrolean Alps, keeping temperatures well above zero. The short-range forecast was negative—more thaw and rain with only little snow in higher regions.

Emergency operations concentrated on Mount Patscherkofel, just south of the city, where the

It is learned Sheriff Calvin Spice, long-time critic of the current wages earned by county employees, had been asked to be included in the benefits committee.

Spice said, however, he would make an official statement when the committee is formed.

Meanwhile, Spice is seeking two radio operators to fill positions created when two veterans resigned Wednesday.

Resignations of both employees, Roy Abitz, and Richard DeLeau are effective at the end of this month.

Both men resigned because of low pay, they said in letters to Spice. Both received $295 per month.

The hearing would cost $100 per day for the Employees Association during the length of the hearing.

All employees have been granted a 3 per cent wage increase which was reflected in checks given out today.

Several other employees received as high as 7 per cent cost of living increases based on 1958 base wages. It was learned only 19 employees, mostly female office help, received the maximum.

Must Not Serve Substitute Drink, Restaurants Told

Circuit Court Judge Andrew W. Parnell has entered a final judgment against George A. and Toni Sattler, as individuals and as co-owners and operators of three restaurants enjoining them from selling, or offering for sale any product not that of The Coca-Cola Company or Coke to orders for Coca-Cola or Coke without giving the customer sufficient verbal notice.

The corporation, G. A. Sattler, Inc., has two restaurants in Appleton: Samm's Pizza Palace at 211 N. Appleton St., and The Campus, at 321 E. College Ave. Their third restaurant is also called Samm's Pizza Palace, and is at 135 N. Commercial St. in Neenah.

Coca-Cola and Coke are universally known trademarks.

Chicago Couple Finds Happiness On Beautiful Farm Near Navarino

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post Crescent Staff Writer

NAVARINO—The keening notes of Wisconsin's siren call have now been headed by a young Chicago couple who have only listened to it for years.

Geraldine Machan, 26, and his perky wife, Geraldine, packed up bag and baggage and said their not-so-fond farewells to the teeming streets, the concrete jungles and the unsavory history of their Chicago-bound home town, Cicero.

With scarcely a backward look, the young couple ventured into the comparative wilds of Shawano County. They paced off the spot near Navarino where their home would stand bought 150 acres of sandy soil and started to build.

"We've always wanted to live in Wisconsin," said Geraldine, "so we decided we'd do it while we're young enough to enjoy it."

Machan, a former television engineer, is a capable fellow with a tool. His home, now a-building, promises to be one of the finest in the region. No designer, the home is largely Machan-designed. No carpenter, he's the carpenter. No mason, he's the mason.

And the 130 acres? He'll be making it into a shooting range. With some 100 shooting stations there'll be sighting ranges, skeet and trap shooting facilities and mechanical running deer. It's monicker-to-be Navarino Shooting Range.

Court Upholds Conviction of Billy Sol Estes

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed Wednesday the swindling conviction and eight-year prison sentence for Billie Sol Estes.

The three-man appeals court is scheduled for opening next summer, less than a year after the arrival here of the happy Macmans who came in April, and Wisconsin's siren call will have been heard by people who love that kind of music.

Health Care Plan For Aged Proposed By 6 GOP Senators

Provides Hospital, Nursing And New Insurance Program

BY JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Republican senators offered health fund legislation today to provide a public-private health care plan for the aged that they described as the most comprehensive yet presented to Congress.

One part would provide 45 days of hospital care, up to 180 days of skilled nursing home care, or more than 200 days of home health care following treatment in a hospital for all persons 65 or over.

This would be financed by an increase of 1/2 to 1 per cent in

Johnson Asks Ships, Missiles Spending Cut

Wants Them Slashed By Billion; Added Money for Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is asking Congress to cut spending on missiles and ships by more than a billion dollars and to increase spending on planes by $300 million.

This was revealed Wednesday when the Defense Department sent Congress its authorization request for the 1965 fiscal year.

The request included $10.6 billion for procurement of missiles, ships and planes. Last year, Congress appropriated $11.4 billion for procurement.

By enabling private insurance firms to pool their risks, a standard policy could be made available at a cost of about $2 a week, sponsors estimated.

Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee that must consider the request, said "I am not disturbed at all" by the program with the best requested cut in procurement.

"We will see what the justification is when the hearings begin," he continued.

Vinson said the committee, which submitted its findings to the late President, would begin its hearings on Jan. 27, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is scheduled as the first witness.

Zanzibar to Have Socialist Rule

ZANZIBAR (AP) — Foreign Minister Abdul Rahman Mo- hammed Babu said today that Zanzibar's new government will be Socialist but will not necessarily follow the Cuban pattern.

In a roadside interview Babu said the island "quite possibly" will remain within the British commonwealth.

Babu, who has been known for Communist sympathies, was accompanied by four armed lieutenants. One said he had been trained in Cuba along with "many" Zanzibaris.

Several other Zanzibari rebels are believed to have been trained in Peking and a cor- respondent of Communist China's visit with the British ended in "full harmony." The German NA arrived here Jan. 10, two leaders said the status quo ante should not be changed in Ger-

Wilbur Renk, Candidate

Wilbur Renk as an aspirant for the Republican nomination for United States senator will measure up to the quality of the men the party has offered at any time in this century. He has had long experience as one of the partners in one of the most successful of the corporation farming enterprises in the Middle West. He has had public service experience in a variety of capacities, including membership on the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin. His previous party activity is nearly as widely known as his rank in agriculture, most recently as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in 1962 when he made a respectable run against long odds.

While we might have wished that he would have accompanied his candidacy announcement with more specific descriptions of his attitudes and convictions on contemporary issues in national and international affairs, he will have nearly three quarters of a year to elaborate them. What is important to the health of the Wisconsin political party system is that both party organizations have now, in effect, fielded their principal candidates and are now prepared for the public debate that will be concluded with the voters' decision in November.

We believe as do most observers of Wisconsin affairs that Mr. Renk is peculiarly attractive as a candidate for senator against Democratic Senator Proxmire this year because of the circumstances in which he made his bid for the governorship earlier.

Two years ago Mr. Renk thought he saw an opportunity to challenge the Republican organization candidate for the governorship, in a time of apparent party demoralization, and thus to take over the leadership of the ticket and the command of the party. His calculations were wrong, although his aspiration was wholly within the letter and spirit of the state primary election law which entrusts the ultimate responsibility for nominations to the people.

But there were powerful anti-Republican influences that exploited the Renk candidacy for purposes of their own. The Democratic press of southern Wisconsin, for example, portrayed Mr. Renk as the sanctified knight in a glistening coat of mail, riding forth to destroy the forces of reaction and evil. They devoted to his name and his cause such extravagant and uncritical praise that whatever impression was made upon the electorate must leave a residual benefit for Renk as the Republican regular candidate of today.

We find in this circumstance a mild source of amusement. Mr. Renk and his Republican friends, having succeeded in completing a strong party ticket earlier than in most years, will find in it a strategical advantage.

Speakers Discuss Causes, Ways To Solve Problem of Prejudice

Lawrence Psychologist, UW Sociologist Talk to Overflow Audience in Appleton

Fox Cities residents were encouraged to make prejudice "unprofitable and unpopular" by Dr. Gilbert James, UW Fox Valley Center sociologist, in the second in a series of lectures on human rights here Tuesday.

Dr. James, a member of the UW Ford urban team, and Dr. Chester Hill, Lawrence College psychologist, spoke on the psychological causes, social effects and possible solutions to the problem of prejudice in the lecture sponsored by the Fox Cities vocational and adult schools.

They spoke to a more-than-capacity audience overflowing the auditorium in Appleton's Lincoln School.

Simplify Life

Dr. Hill led off with a summary of the multiple factors which mold a prejudiced individual. Prejudice, he said, can be "socially inherited," influenced by parental attitudes and social atmosphere. The anxiety and confusion felt by an insecure individual also causes him to become sensitive as a protective measure, Dr. Hill explained.

"Black-white thinking" is typical of the prejudiced person's tendency to simplify life's complexities. Dr. Hill said. This can produce an illogical attitude such as "if you have any black blood, you're black; 'not,' if you have any white blood, you're white," he continued. The tendency to simplify encourages panaceas solutions to problems, he said.

"To accept love from others, you had first better accept yourself, and love yourself," Dr. Hill concluded.

There is a considerable difference between verbal attitude and action attitude, or behavior. Dr. James stressed giving examples of research findings. He told of a sociologist who accompanied a Chinese couple throughout the United States. The couple, as part of a test, stopped at 250 different hotels and room facilities. They were refused service only once. Later the sociologist wrote each of the hotels asking if Chinese friends would be accepted as guests. Ninety per cent of the hotel replied "no."

Dr. James demonstrated similar inconsistencies in citing other research projects with union workers and student groups.

Problems of Migration

The problems created by group migration usually are wrongly identified with group or racial differences, Dr. James said. When people in an unfamiliar social and work situation don't know what is expected of them and their traditional social controls have been uprooted, trouble results, he said, noting that police problems in Chicago and Los Angeles reflect this fact.

Research on an urban housing project for Negroes which failed to reduce the crime rate as expected showed that removal of slums also had removed elements such as church around which social patterns revolved, he said. The result was an increase of crime and other problems.

A. E. Stern will be in charge of the program at the club rooms of the Most Precious Blood Catholic School. (White and Mrs. Russell White.)

Dr. James concluded with the assertion that prejudice will be most rapidly overcome in the kind of community where prejudice is "unprofitable and unpopular." This, he said, can be accomplished by the various means of publicity and discussion such as this lecture series which will help people to rethink their attitudes related on human relations problems—such as racial integration.

A lively question and answer period followed the formal presentations.

Asked why Negro and other minority groups were not present in the Fox Valley, Dr. James said the area's history indicates it probably was because they were not encouraged to come and were not encouraged to stay. The movement of the Negro population in Wisconsin will be from the southeastern area of the state to the north and west, and the Fox Valley is in the path, he said, adding that it would be better to prepare to accept them intelligently than to have them come in over opposition.

The question of interracial marriage came up several times. Dr. Hill said he is not opposed to interracial marriage itself but only to the tensions and social problems it would bring to the couple in a society which does not accept it. "It is very difficult for this kind of marriage to be happy," he said.

Dr. James said in a society which agreed, adding that in a society such as Brazil where interracial marriage is commonly accepted, he would have no objection to it.

Lawrence Says CIA Release Of News Called Constructive

Agency Gathers and Sifts Information
From Whole World

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON — Perhaps the most constructive step taken by the United States government in the debate over the "cold war" was the recent decision to let the Central Intelligence Agency come out into the open and give the world — including the American people — the facts about the economic difficulties confronting the Soviet Union.

Naturally there has been some criticism. But even in the face of expected comments of an adverse nature—particularly from Moscow newspapers—the CIA has disclosed some valuable information about the Soviet economic crisis. This presumably couldn't have been done without the consent of the president. Discussion of the CIA's scope of activities, however, didn't arise for the first time under the present administration. It has been up again and again. Obviously, the CIA has to operate in secrecy, but the image of the agency given to the American public has been primarily of the "cloak and dagger" type.

It has always been assumed generally that espionage is the main function of the agency. The most valuable service performed by the CIA is to gather and analyze information from different parts of the world which the press cannot always collect or which the American embassies and consular officials are not equipped to gather without a substantial increase in their staffs.

Military Data
As for actual "intelligence"—the data relating to military matters—this is collected not only by the CIA, whenever possible, but to a considerable extent also by the intelligence units of the U.S. Army, the Air Force and the Navy, respectively. The Central Intelligence Agency would probably have been better named "The World Information Agency," because its time and money are spent for the most part in getting information from foreign countries that isn't military at all. Perhaps one of the least known functions of the CIA is to maintain contacts with the

Change in Climate Not Always Cure-All

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My daughter's two children must move to a different climate because of bad cases of asthma, bronchitis, etc. She has spent a fortune trying different tests, pills, etc.

Is Florida as good a location as Arizona? I would like your unqualified opinion.

MRS. J. J.

I don't know that you mean "unqualified," but that's what you'll get—my unqualified opinion. Because I have absolutely no qualifications for trying to say whether Florida would be better than Arida.

You see, there isn't any climate that is "best" for asthma, vance? Don't try it, because you may find that you have spent a lot of money and uprooted the family and gained nothing.

Most asthma in children can best be attacked by having a very careful study of the child's allergic sensitivities, whether from food, plants, dust or other factors. Along with this, the cooperation of the parents, in trying to teach the child to be calm and common-sensical about the trouble, is usually a necessity.

Expecting these elements to be changed by moving to some other climate is inviting disappointment. It is true that there may be differences in the air just as some areas have less ragweed than others, and hay fever victims have less trouble. So, in some instances, certain cases of asthma might be benefitted by a different climate, because the plant life would be different.

If your children wash their hands — every time — before eating or touching their mouths, they will be fairly safe. But it's not easy to get kids to do this. I trust our neighbors have had their children treated. It can take several weeks to learn whether pinworm eggs have been acquired. The booklet will tell you how to watch for the signs and how to combat the pinworm. Could my children, by playing with theirs get infected? Enclosed is 20 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your booklet, "Pinworm — The Commonest Pest."

intelligence agencies of friendly governments so that data can be exchanged or verified. All intelligence units occasionally make mistakes and are sometimes misled, but the longer they are in operation, the better they function. America's experience with intelligence activity has covered a relatively short period. In foreign intelligence agencies, however, there is today a healthy respect for the American CIA.

Some criticism has come, incidentally, from the press here about the CIA's news conference, inasmuch as the questions asked by the reporters were not always answered. The CIA cannot serve usually as a vehicle of information for the press, but it can at times give out that which it is in the interest of the United States government to make public. In the past, the directors of the CIA have made speeches discussing various aspects of the "cold war," but these have not been as specific as the type of information given out at the recent news conference.

Economic Information
The value of economic information about what is going on behind the Iron Curtain can hardly be overestimated. Thus, it has been revealed that the Soviets have not made in recent years the progress often attributed to them. It is apparent also that, if the Moscow government is to develop, for example, chemical fertilizers on a large scale to improve Soviet agriculture, chemical production for use in nuclear weapons and other explosives will have to be cut down. This could mean a favorable turn in the "cold war" for the United States, and certainly it could reduce some of the pressure here to spend billions for the accumulation of unnecessary armament.

Perhaps one of the least known functions of the CIA is to maintain contacts with the

Johnson Has Drafted a Message to Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the tax returns showing incomes of news from Washington: over $10,000 increased 18 per cent last year to more than $7 million.

KHRUSHCHEV: President Johnson has drafted a proposed message to Soviet Premier Khrushchev telling him the United States agrees that border disputes between nations should be settled peacefully.

But in the note, a reply to Khrushchev's recent proposal for a worldwide nonaggression pact, Johnson intends to point out to the Soviet leader that the United Nations is a peace-keeping organization although it needs strengthening.

The President's proposed reply, described by officials as a four-page message, was dispatched Wednesday to Allied governments for their comments. Depending on Allied reactions, the message may be substantially changed before it is sent to Moscow next week.

TAX FACTS: The number of postmarks will no longer tell the time of day that mail was canceled. In its place will go a simple "a.m." or "p.m." designation.

GRAIN SALES: The Commerce Department authorized Wednesday the first sale of American rice to Russia—$7.45 million worth—since the United States gave approval to commodity sales to Iron Curtain countries.

After the license was granted, Continental Grain Co. announced in New York it had sold 50,000 metric tons of rice to the Soviet Union at the world market price.

DISCRIMINATION: The U.S. Housing Administration has reached agreement with Minnesota on a pact designed to provide federal sanctions for violations of the state's fair housing law.

This would permit the federal government to act in many cases where it now is powerless under the limited provisions of a presidential executive order against racial discrimination in housing.

TUNED OUT: The Federal Communications Commission voted down Wednesday its own proposal to set fixed limits on the number and frequency of radio and television commercials.

The unanimous decision of the seven-man commission came after strong objections to the proposed limits from a House Communications subcommittee and from the broadcasting industry.

Goldwater Hits 'Handouts' by Government

Accuses Johnson of Making 'Santa Claus' Promises to Nation

BY WALTER R. MEARS

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, calling for an attack on what he termed "the state GOP Santa Claus" of the "government handout," has urged that

"able-bodied men on relief be put to work for their welfare check schedule."

The Arizona Republican accused President Johnson of making "Santa Clause promises" in his State of the Union message.

Johnson's program adds up to saying "that the bureaucracy in Washington can solve all our problems, end poverty and create prosperity," Goldwater said.

Rival's Homeland

Carrying his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination into the home town of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, his only announced rival, Goldwater charged Wednesday night the Democratic party has "reduced rewards for good work and also reduced the penalties for laziness or waste."

He told the Economic Club of New York that the government should investigate "whether the attitude or the action of the small group not participating in the general prosperity has anything to do with the situation."

In his State of the Union message Johnson outlined proposals that would cost about one billion dollars over the next few years to combat poverty.

Johnson Budget

Johnson also proposed a $97.9 billion federal budget, saying it would cut expenditures $500 million below those of this fiscal

Johnson called that "a fast shuffle of figures" and said Johnson actually wants $2 billion more than Congress authorized for this year.

Goldwater said that to deal with the problem of poverty: "I would, if I were in a position to do so, call a conference with participation from all of the states to study this problem of poverty and jobs, to pin down

Every time a Cadillac goes by, it seems someone falls in love with it.

Last year, for instance, more people moved up to Cadillac than ever before in history. And the way 1964 is starting off, Cadillac is going to attract more owners than even its beguiling predecessor. Why? We think the answer is easy.

Each year, Cadillac simply lengthens its margin of product leadership—by introducing advancements and improvements that are entirely its own.

In 1964, for example, we've combined the heater and air conditioner in a single unit—with a single control. You set the thermostat at your favorite temperature just like you do at home—and the interior of the car holds it winter and summer. We call it Comfort Control. *An extra-cost option.

Little Hope for Accelerator Funds in Budget

Johnson Approval For Installation Is Possible Later

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wisconsin members of Congress have little hope that funds to initiate the proposed $150 million high intensity accelerator will be included in President Johnson's budget recommendations.

But they feel that later in the year the White House may get behind the effort to construct the huge atom smasher near the University of Wisconsin.

And Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, has joined 16 other senators and many House members from Midwest and Great Lakes states in supporting the proposal.

The accelerator was proposed by Midwestern Universities Research Association (MURA) which includes scientists from the University of Wisconsin and other Midwest universities.

Johnson met Dec. 20 with a group including Sens. Gaylord Nelson and William Proxmire, Wisconsin Democrats; Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., and Rep. Robert Kastenmeier, D-Wis., but gave little backing to their request that he include funds in the budget for a start on the accelerator.

Lausche, in a letter to Johnson, said scientists, researchers and executives of the Midwest universities are convinced that the accelerator offers a chance of a major scientific step forward.

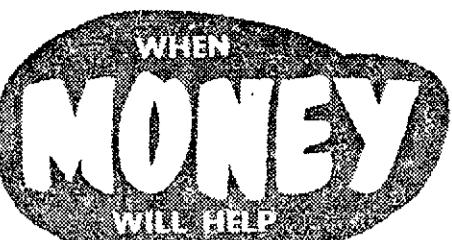

"I can only say," Lausche wrote, "that if the Midwest is bypassed in favor of the East or West coasts in the establishment of this major scientific installation it will be a calamitous blow to the productive capacity of our Midwestern universities."

An aide of Nelson said that when action on the tax reduction bill has been completed by Congress there may be a better chance to get approval for the MURA proposal.

Colorado Grade Crossing Closed

LA SALLE, Colo. (AP) — A grade crossing where 20 children died in a train-school bus

dents, some of the clergy and the man in the street—came demanding for a new treaty providing for ultimate nationalization of the canal rather than the perpetual control the United States has under the 1903 treaty.

Won't Yield Rights

President Johnson was under pressure from Congress to stand fast. The White House has said it would not yield basic American rights in the Canal Zone.

At the height of the riotous demonstrations and shooting outbreaks at the border between the republic and the zone last week, Gov. Robert J. Flemming Jr. turned over the command to Gen. Andrew O'Meara, commanding general of the Southern Command with headquarters in the zone.

Today the Pentagon announced it had received this announcement from the general: "I hereby relinquish to Robert J. Flemming Jr., governor of the Canal Zone, responsibility for law and order in the Canal Zone and all other responsibilities within the Canal Zone other than the command of United States military forces and United States military installations."

There was no immediate explanation here of just how the shift, suggesting a military view that the situation had quieted down, squares with word from Panama Wednesday night that the Army had moved small units back up to the border as new violence appeared to threaten.

Day of Prayer

The dispatch reporting that move, however, also said that life within the zone itself was back to a semblance of normalcy.

Along with the announcement of the shift of control, the Pentagon relayed word that O'Meara and Flemming are designating Friday, Jan. 17, as a day of prayer throughout the Canal Zone in memory of the men who lost their lives "in the performance of their duty during the events that transpired since Thursday, Jan. 9."

Man Innocent of False Statement

MADISON (AP)—A jury in U.S. District Court found Bernard Pesik of Janesville innocent Wednesday of a charge that he made a false statement to a federal agency.

Chief Justice George R. Currie of the Wisconsin Supreme Court said the defense attorneys should be appointed to make it clear on the record that the defendant had been granted his full rights.

In answer to a question, he said he would recommend the appointment of an attorney in all homicide cases, even if the defendant doesn't want one. He also said justices of the state's high court were inclined to think that a sentence of three months or more would qualify as a substantial sentence.

In another area, the judges voted to look into the possibility of leaving the state public employee pension plan. They voted to assess each circuit judge $20 to hire a pension consultant to help prepare a separate retirement plan for county circuit and Supreme Court judges.

The circuit court judges were gathered for their annual winter meeting.

NAACP Has Agreement From Racine Bank

RACINE (AP)—The National Association for the Advance of Colored People agreed Wednesday to stop picketing a bank after the institution issued a statement saying it is "opposed to discrimination."

Sloan Williams, president of the Racine branch of the NAACP, said the statement of the First National Bank & Trust Co. had been accepted and picketing would not be resumed.

The picketing was started about four months ago after the NAACP said a Negro teacher was refused an apartment held in trust by the bank.

Tabulation Error of $26,733 Upsets Tax Fund Distribution

MADISON (AP)—The head of Wisconsin's Department of Taxation said Wednesday a tabulation error—which substituted $26,800 for a $26,80 item—had thrown off the distribution of state shared taxes for all 1,900 communities in the state.

George Corning said it would take the Legislature to correct the mistake. A bill to set things straight will be offered in the April session, he said.

Corning said the whole business started with a machine key said the state does not have a punch error which fixed a Bayfield County man's tax liability to the state to which it belongs at $26,800 instead of $26,80. The do. The Legislature will be asked to clear the way for the Town of Cable's share return of the funds so the mis-take can be corrected in the tax office.

Powerful Highway Campaign Started

Democratic Party, Road Builders Back 'Yes' Vote in Referendum

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — A powerful campaign for an affirmative vote on the crash highway bonding referendum in April is being organized by highway promotion interests with the collaboration of the Democratic state administration of Gov. John W. Reynolds.

The governor apparently has changed his view that submission of the question of a bonded debt and a higher motor fuel tax to amortize it will inevitably bring a negative vote. He is now prepared for a major publicity and educational effort to obtain the kind of a response that will persuade a reluctant legislature to act when it returns to session April 13, when the balloting will be fresh in legislators' minds.

Builders Backing
The campaign will be with the active and eager collaboration of highway builders and others whose economic interest is associated with an expansion of highway construction, although some of these collaborators may remain discreetly in the background.

According to one account from an unusually reliable source, a campaign budget of $100,000 already has been pledged by contributors, and the total expendi-tions may be beyond that amount.

An effort will be made to organize a broad-gauge campaign committee on a non-partisan basis, and containing the names of influential men of both political parties. There are signs that the casual preparations last year on behalf of the governor's so-called "Project 66" will be improved considerably.

The governor evidently regards the highway proposal as one of the key elements of his re-election drive. Democratic Party headquarters publicists are busily claiming that the issue will be one of the most popular of the year. But the governor and his advisors, as well as the politically sophisticated roadbuilders and their commercial allies, are aware that a negative vote in the spring will be a poor springboard from which to launch an appeal to the voters in the fall.

Spring votes in Wisconsin are usually light, and sometimes show a disproportionate influence of the rural residents. This year, however, there is a contest for mayor of Milwaukee, which will bring out a higher than usual vote in that Democratic stronghold. Moreover, the highways issue always has had a relatively strong appeal in rural Wisconsin and the highway program promoters are relying on that tradition in their preparations.

Clarify Position

Gov. Reynolds, meanwhile, has noted with private satisfaction the effort of his prospective opponent in the gubernatorial election to clarify his position on the highway crash construction issue.

Warren Knowles, who is likely to win the Republican nomination, was angrily accused by the Roadbuilders Association and others of inspiring the Republican-controlled legislature's resistance to the governor's

NAACP Asks Lifting Of Firm's License For Discrimination

MADISON (AP) — Lloyd Barber, president of the Wisconsin chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Wednesday the NAACP has asked the State Insurance Commission to lift

the license of a Madison insurance firm.

The NAACP contends that the Mutual Indemnity Insurance Co. discriminated against Negroes in the sale of policies.

George A. Stewart, general agent for the insurance firm, denied the claim. He said the NAACP based its complaint on an ex-employee, who made a statement as "an act of revenge."

Congressmen
Pledge Support
To Wilbur Renk

Wisconsin GOP
Representatives
Endorse Candidacy

BY FRANCES MCKUSICK
Post-Crescent Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Wisconsin's Republican congressional delegation Wednesday sent a congratulatory telegram to Wilbur Renk, Sun Prairie, on the announcement of his candidacy for the GOP senatorial nomination and pledged their individual and joint endorsements and support.

The telegram was signed by Reps. Henry C. Schadeberg, Vernon W. Thomson, John W. Byrnes, William K. Van Pelt, Melvin R. Laird and Alvin E. O'Konski.

In a separate statement to this correspondent, Byrnes said it was "splendid" that Renk is running for the nomination, that Renk would make an excellent candidate and that he was happy over the announcement.

Former Wisconsin Gov. Vernon W. Thomson said Renk has distinguished himself in every position he has held and predicted that he will distinguish himself in the U.S. Senate.

Stressing that Renk "has always been associated with the blue ribbon achievements of Renk farms, known far and wide for their excellent quality," Thomson believes "Renk, who has grown up in that atmosphere, will be a blue ribbon Senator."

Last Friday night during a reception given by the Republican National Committee, former GOP State Chairman Claude Jasper, Madison, expressed the hope that Renk would announce for the Senate and said his candidacy would help elect a Republican representative from the second district now held by Democrat Robert W. Kastenmeier.

Incumbent William Proxmire, Democrat, now holds the Senate seat for which elections will be held in November.

KAUKAUNA — Cyril Reichel, 904 Cleveland Ave., took out and filed nomination papers for the spring election in a matter of seconds for the Fifth ward aldermanic post, according to Karl E. Marzah, city clerk.

Needing only one signature on his nomination papers, Reichel, appeared at city hall with two other men from his ward, took out papers, had their signatures affixed and the paper notarized by the clerk.

Married and the father of four children, the candidate is making his first try for public office although he served part of an appointed term as county supervisor from the ward. He will be opposed by Alois Peters, another newcomer. Incumbent Fred Reichel has not taken out papers.

Floyd Saykally, 2209 Main Ave., took out papers for Third ward alderman making it a three-way race. Saykally is an IBM data processing technician. He is making his first try for public office and will be opposed by incumbent George Simon and James McDaniels.

Frank Schneider, route 1, Menasha, took out papers for the school board bringing to three the number seeking the two posts to be filled. Schneider is the second candidate from outside the corporate limits of the city.

John Corcoran, Fourth Ward supervisor candidate, filed nomination papers.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Quote of the day: George Singer, 95, as he practiced in Tucson for the Southern Arizona Square Dance Festival. "Most weeks I have danced five or six times; sometimes it was seven or eight. But arthritis is catching up with me now. I don't get out as often, probably not more than once a week."
